FUGITIVE INDICTED FOR OBTAINING AND USING FALSE IDENTIFICATION DOCUMENTS

Terrell L. Harris announced today the Grand Jury for the Western District of Tennessee indicted Edward Allen Rogers for illegally possessing a Tennessee Driver's license with intent to defraud the United States. Rogers is also charged with making false statements to obtain a passport from the United States. The Indictment alleges that Rogers applied for a passport that falsely identified him as Scott Thomas Rogers.

Rogers faces a maximum sentence of twenty-five years imprisonment and a possible Five Hundred Thousand Dollar Fine.

Mr. Harris noted that Mr. Rogers is still a fugitive and that anyone having knowledge of his whereabouts should contact the nearest United States Marshals Service. Stephen Parker, Assistant United States Attorney is prosecuting this case.
